

Caller
Pat Carnathan

Pat began square dancing in 1977 with his parents in San Diego, California. In June of 1980 the club he danced with had an Amateur Callers' Night and though he was scared to death he was clearly hooked.

Pat has called and taught classes for a number of clubs in Southern California. Known for calling and teaching in an all-position (DBD) format, he's doing his best to improve the dancing level of the Inland Empire. He loves calling and singing to modern music. His goals include increasing the number of younger dancers by erasing old stereotypes and showing people that square dancing has modernized and is an entertaining pastime.

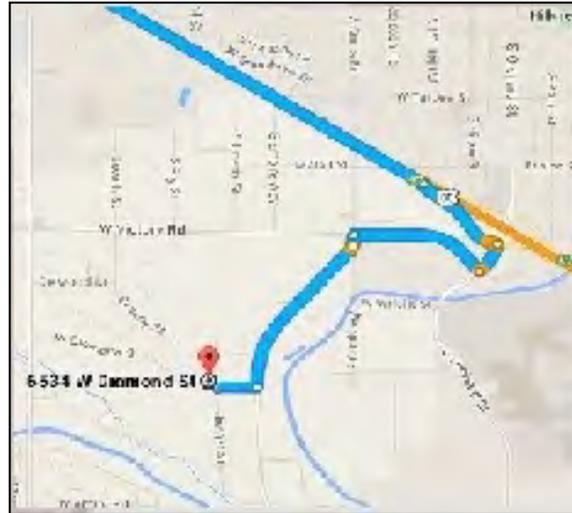

Pat and his wife Monica reside in Menifee, CA.

Zina
Robertson Rapp

Zina was invited by a friend to take square dance lessons in 2010. In 2011 she took round dance lessons from TJ & Bruce Chadd. It was through that activity that she met her husband, Dale in 2012. They married in 2015. Dale was in a youth exhibition group in high school and in his early 30's he took ballroom lessons and briefly taught at a studio in Spokane. Zina has been cueing since 2014.

She and Dale live in Boise, ID.
